Michael Douglas C

In the Russian Orthodox Church of Christ the Saviour yesterday afternoon, Miss Sophie Dobzhansky was married to Michael Douglas Coe, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers Coe of 9 East Sixty-eighth Street and Meadow Spring, Glen Cove, L. I. The bride is the daughter of Theodosius Dobzhansky, Professor of Zoology at Columbia University, and Mrs. Dobzhansky of 39 Claremont Avenue.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Theodor Mikhailov. There was a reception in the Men's Faculty Club of Columbia.

The bride wore a gown of off-white taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice with a V-neckline and long sleeves and a bouffant skirt with a train. Her full-length tulle veil was attached to a cap of heirloom lace, and she carried an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed white flowers.

Miss Ellen Karen Sperry of New York was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Florence Lamont and Audrey Derderian, also of this city, and Ann Elizabeth Bale of Berkeley, Calif.

William Robertson Coe 2d of Devon, Pa., was best man for his brother. The ushers were Morton R. Levine and W. Ritchie Simpkins of Cambridge, Mass., and Leo B. Pappas of Washington.

When they return from a wedding trip to Wyoming, the couple will live in Cambridge, where both will be doing graduate work in anthropology at Harvard University.

Mrs. Coe, an alumna of the New Lincoln School here, graduates this month from Radcliffe College. Her husband graduated in 1950 from Harvard College. He was a member of Signet Society there.

The bridegroom is a grandson of the late William Robertson Coe of New York and Planting Fields, Oyster Bay, L. I., sportsman, philanthropist and insurance executive, and the late Mrs. Coe, who was the former Miss Mai Huddleston Rogers. She was a daughter of the late Henry Huddleston Rogers, for many years president of the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. Coe is a nephew of Countess Natalie Mai Vitetti of Rome, Robert D. Coe, United States Ambassador to Denmark, and Henry R. Coe of Cody, Wyo.
